

Kyabram & District Health Services

PRESS RELEASE

1st July 2011

New Board member for KDHS

The Board of Kyabram & District Health Services (KDHS) is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Paddy Turner to the Board, from 1st July 2011.

Mr. Turner said “As a member of the community, I believe it is important to support the needs of the local community and as a Board member, I can make a useful contribution”.

Mr. Turner began his career in the Royal Navy in Britain, where he served for 22 years in the Medical Branch, serving in shore based Sick Bays and a variety of HM ships. He saw active service in Lebanon, Falklands Is. and the Gulf and left the service in 1997, after a full and varied career.

After working within the care sector in UK, Mr. Turner set up his own business as a Training Consultant, primarily teaching first aid and OH&S.

Mr. Turner first visited Australia in 1998 and developed a connection to the country and its’ people, which led him and his wife Kim to emigrate, to Kyabram in 2004, becoming an Australian Citizen in 2007.

Mr. Turner initially worked for the Kyabram Community and Learning Centre as a casual trainer, progressing to Training Manager in 2005 and to CEO in 2008.

Board President, Mr. Mike Sweeney, said “Mr. Turner’s skills will be an asset to the Board in the years ahead.”
